

Emily Cho is a senior at the University of Hawaii at Manoa with an emphasis on transportation. She has worked at spas as a receptionist and as a spa attendant. Currently, she is working at the Social Science Dean's office at the University of Hawaii as a student assistant in the Human Resource department. Emily is currently a historian in Eta Sigma Delta, an honors club in the TIM school. She is also a member of young skal international.

In the future, her dream is to either become an operational manager or an airline or an airport dispatcher. She is planning to attend schooling for a dispatching certificate as soon as she graduates.